Health Inequalities Resources

This is a resource to support teams in meeting their health inequalities duties by signposting you to key publically available resources. This is not intended to be a definitive list. However, we are keen to update this regularly. Please do therefore let us know if you have a suggestion for any additional resources to be added? Please email these to england.eandhi@nhs.net

Inclusion Health specific Resources
Inclusive Practice provides the first ever comprehensive review of the evidence supporting good practice in access to primary care and prevention of avoidable hospital admission for four of society's most vulnerable populations- homeless people, Gypsies and travellers, sex workers and vulnerable migrants.

Access to Primary Care among vulnerable groups: review of evidence:
